In much more than name, Rocco Forte Hotels is the Forte family. At its helm are Sir Rocco, his sister and his three children. Behind it are four generations of Forte hoteliers. It is in every way a family business, a shared love evident in every Rocco Forte hotel – each exuding their innate Anglo-Italian style, sophistication and warmth.

Hotel de la Ville epitomises the Forte spirit. Stood proudly atop the Spanish Steps, the vibrant 18th-century palazzo at once overlooks and embodies life in the Eternal City – its confluence of classical Roman romance and contemporary cool, sweeping city views, lively drinking and dining spots, and witty design making for Rome’s most exciting new arrival.

From the sparkling rooftop bar to the peaceful Sicilian spa, the terracotta-hued central courtyard to the sumptuous rooms and suites, every element is formed for delight. A celebration of Italian antiques, art, rich colours and plush fabrics given a fresh, zestful lease of life, interiors honour the Grand European Tour era.

Dining, too, celebrates Italian heritage and heart, from Fulvio Pierangelini’s Roman Mosaico restaurant to street-side bistro Da Sistina.

We ask, simply, that you enjoy it. Take a cocktail looking out across the roofs of Rome at Cielo Bar; a signature treatment in the De la Ville Spa. Take time to explore our artwork; to stroll down the steps and into the city; to turn back and admire Hotel de la Ville – a modern-day icon in the heart of Rome.
Design by Tommaso Ziffer and Olga Polizzi gives classical art and objects a modern, maximalist twist. Here, mirrors sororities at the entrance.
Many suites come with their own terraces, looking over the internal courtyard or out along Via Sistina.
The sitting room of the Suite de la Ville, a spectacular space with two roof terraces and panoramic views of Rome.
“Our inspiration came from our surroundings: Trinità dei Monti, Villa Medici - Accademia di Francia; it’s impossible not to be influenced”

Tommaso Ziffer
Herbs, spices and spirits fused with imagination and flair, the Julep Herbal & Vermouth Bar takes taste inspiration from the 13th-century spice trail.
From hosting the evening’s aperitivo to al fresco dinners at Mosaico, the inner courtyard garden is the focal point of the Hotel de la Ville.
Da Sistina, a contemporary take on the authentic Roman trattoria, serving antipasti, pastas and meats from breakfast to post-theatre.
Inspired by the flavours of the entire Roman Empire, from Italy to Africa, Michelin-starred chef Fulvio Pierangelini presides over Mosaico restaurant.
Cielo Bar’s rooftop terrace: craft cocktails, fine wines and a perspective nonpareil across the rooftops of Rome.
“De La Ville Spa celebrates the very best that the Mediterranean has to offer. Every element is designed to promote wellness, and increased longevity”
